Question: Why should I attend The Art of Marriage event?

Answer: 1) Because marriage is an art and an artist improves only by devoting time to painting.

2) Because marriage is a complicated subject which must be studied. You do better on tests when you have studied.

3) Because love fades. Relationships require tune-ups in order to run well just like cars. That is why you change the oil and filter in your engine, periodically replace the air filter, and check the air pressure in your car’s tires.
