Dear White Bluff Chapel Mission Committee,

I cannot thank you enough for your prayer and financial gifts this last year! We have clearly seen God create a movement of Jesus in professional cycling, both here in the United States and abroad. The money that you gifted me at the beginning of the year has literally mobilized 20-30 professional athletes to walk with Jesus and reach their teammates in a way that has never been done before. Our presence in the sport has allowed men and women to not only come into a relationship with Jesus, but also grow in their depth of faith and to share it with others as well.

Your gifts have directly affected my personal ability to be present at cycling events across the country, meet one-on-one with athletes weekly, as well as start groups of athletes growing in their faith together. Without these gifts it is impossible for me to continue to be available to walk closely with athletes and help encourage a movement of God through this sport and into the world.

Sports directly influence our world in the same way music, pop culture, and the media impact the world we live in. We believe that through professional sports, God will draw people to himself and influence the influencers to lead others to the Gospel.

I look forward to partnering with White Bluff Chapel for this next year in an even bigger way, to bring the good news to a dark and hurting world. Thank you so much and I look forward to hearing from you all soon.

In Jesus,

Brian Firle
